I'm sure it was God!

Of course, the Oak family sees no worth in a profession that doesn't involve the Military or the Government.

You're right in that aspect

However, my mother said she couldn't remember anything about the period when she had been possessed and my father was not one to do something as scandalous as a divorce.

In the end, I was harshly reprimanded by my father for seeking help from a Bishop.

I don't want to be like him!

I will never forgive Father!

I see you've made up your mind about leaving, Haku-ren.

Mother.

I'll be going.

I will always be here, waiting for the day you become a great man.

Your father will not forgive you for this but,

Put your best foot forward and accomplish whatever you wish to do.

Life
is short.

I want to be of
as much help to someone as I can.

but I want to be just like him.

Bishop
Frau
doesn't:
seem to remember
me,

At this point,
it should still be much too
hard for him
to control
that Bascule
at will.

However,
Stretching his body limit will be the best way for Teito
to lose all that is unnecessary.

...I'm only doing this guy a favour by bringing him here, since he looked so lonely.

Why don't you join him in practice, if you like?
